

New and emerging family forms around the globe

Centre d'Estudis Demogràfics, Barcelona 21-22 March 2018

Wednesday, March 21, 2018

9:15-9:45 Registration

9:45-10:00 Introduction to the Workshop

Albert Esteve (Centre d'Estudis Demogràfics)

Maria Midea Kabamalan (University of the Philippines)

(Chair morning: Mariona Lozano)

10:00-11:30 Global trends in marriage and cohabitation I

How have pro-natalist values and rising nonmarital fertility shaped fertility trends in the Philippines? A mixed methods exploration

Bernice Kuang and Brienna Perelli-Harris (University of Southampton)

Explaining marital Patterns and Trends in Mongolia

Naranchimeg Baatar (National University of Mongolia)

Female Headed Families in India

Ankita Chakrabarti (Jawaharlal Nehru University)

11:30-12:00 Coffee Break

12:00-13:30 Global trends in marriage and cohabitation II

Intergenerational Patterns of Family Formation in sub-Saharan Africa: Does Context Matter?

Oluwaseyi Somefun and Clifford Odimegwu (University of the Witwatersrand, Johannesburg)

Family trajectories after the first union dissolution: a study of Uruguayan woman

Mariana Fernández Soto (Universidad de la Republica, Uruguay)

Serial cohabitation in Germany: Determinants and Outcomes of Complex Partnership Histories

Nicole Hiekel (University of Cologne) and Barbara E. Fulda (Technical University Chemnitz)

13:30-15:00 Lunch

(Chair afternoon: Sergi Vidal)

15:00-16:30 Cohabitation and Marriage in Comparative Perspective

The Role of Family Law in Shaping Variation in Family Behaviour: Insights from the Swiss-French Border Region around Geneva

Sebastian Kluesener (Max Planck Institute for Demographic Research, Rostock) and Jonathan Zufferey (University of Geneva)

How Does Cohabitation Change People's Attitudes towards Divorce?

Martin Kreidl (Masaryk University) and Zuzana Zilincikova (Masaryk University)

Employment and the economic situation of cohabiting and married parents in European countries

Anna Garriga (Pompeu Fabra University)

16:30-16:45 Coffee

16:45-17:45 Discussion: New trends in Marriage and Cohabitation around the World

20:00 Dinner at Barcelona at Sagardi BCN Gotic. Carrer de l'Argenteria, 62, 08003 Barcelona

Thursday, March 22, 2018

(Chair morning: Alícia Adserà)

9:30-11:00 Romantic Relationships

Marriage, cohabitation and fertility as family formation pathways in South Africa

Nompumelelo Nzimande (University of KwaZulu-Natal)

Fatherhood and the Progression of Romantic Relationships

Sharon Sassler, Laura Tach, and Emily Parker (Cornell University)

Marriage, Romanticism and Sexuality: On Navigation among Young Educated Females in the Paradoxical Landscape of Iran

Farideh Farahani (Iran)

Discussion on changes in romantic relationships

11:00-11:30 Coffee

11:30-13:00 Singlehood

Normative change in Asian marriage markets and the rise of singlehood (Albert Esteve, presenting author)

Albert Esteve (Centre d'Estudis Demogràfics)

Rethinking the "Retreat from Marriage" in Japan

James Raymo (University of Wisconsin at Madison)

Gender-role ideology, labour market setting and new family forms: The case of life-long singlehood in Europe

Daniela Bellani and Bruno Arpino (Universitat Pompeu Fabra)

Discussion on main themes on emergence of lifelong Singlehood

13:00-14:30 Lunch

(Chair afternoon: Diederik Boertien)

14:30-16:00 LATs & Same-sex marriage

Towards a typology of commitment in LAT relationships

Ann Evans and Edith Gray (Australian National University)

LAT Relationships among Canadian Young Adults

Lisa Strohschein (University of Alberta)

Same-sex marriage in Europe

Maks Banens (Université Lyon 2)

16:00-16:15 Coffee

16:15-16:45 Summary and Synthesis

Brienna Perelli-Harris (University of Southampton)

16:45-18:00 Discussion and New directions for research

20:30 Dinner at Barcelona place to be decided